GAS SPEAK EXECUTIVE TRAINING COURSE

CALL FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

The Australian Gas Industry Trust (AGIT) is calling for expressions of interest from 12 gas executives and senior management who would like to attend the 2021 Gas Speak Executive Training Course in Canberra.

The 1.5 day course will develop your executive level media communication skills including presentation, messaging and industry advocacy across a variety of settings. It will also include a session on advocacy and critical incident management.

It is aimed at those who have not had this type of training previously.

Participants will also attend the Annual Gas Speak Industry Dinner on the 26th October.

There is no cost for the course, but travel and accommodation will be the responsibility of the participant.

Tuesday 26 - Wednesday 27 October 2021
CANBERRA, ACT

Gas Speak Executive 2021

National Museum of Australia, Canberra, ACT

26-27 October 2021

The Australian Gas Industry Trust (AGIT) will again be conducting the Gas Speak Executive in Canberra on Tuesday 26 to Wednesday 27 October 2021. This 1.5 day event is an extension of the highly regarded Gas Speak which has been held since 1982. The course is aimed at executives and senior management who would like to develop media management skills and have not had this type of training previously. It will develop your executive level communication skills including presentation, messaging, and industry advocacy across a variety of settings.

Up to 12 gas industry delegate places are available, with applicants drawn from all areas of the industry - exploration/production, transmission, distribution and retail and appliance sectors.

Participants will also attend the Annual Gas Speak Industry Dinner after the training on the 26th October.

Costs

There is no cost to attend Gas Speak Executive 2021, but costs for travel, accommodation and some meals will be the participant's responsibility. All other costs will be met by the AGIT.

Accommodation is reserved at a special rate at the Burberry and Brassy Hotels, near the National Museum of Australia. Further details will be provided to delegates closer to the date.
